

i find my personal time with my family at home without telemarketing calls to be very valuable and necessary. Since I signed up on the Do Not Call List; i have more time to complete chores, and spend time with my family or just relax at home. In these fast-paced times, this should be a basic human right not to be bothered by telemarketers. Pls. leave the Do Not Call Registry as is. thank you